Property Description

The perfect escape to the country – offering work-life-balance.

Built in 1910, this landmark building is a rare diamond nestled happily in the centre of a vibrant and rapidly growing St. Mary's township.

A major tourist pub, almost anyone visiting the north of Tasmania will drive past her front doors and able to take advantage of her hospitality and accommodation.

Boasting a primary northeast aspect, and retaining much of its originality and heritage hallmarks and is being offered as a freehold and as a trading business for the experienced publican or an escape to the country couple.

This grand old lady offers 15 accommodation rooms, guest lounge room and several bathrooms all upstairs enjoying the wrap around verandas and views. Downstairs is a quaint breakfast room flooded with that lovely morning north east light located near a full commercial kitchen. A caretakers/managers apartment is also available downstairs for those who may wish to live on site.

Saving the best for last, the public bar and restaurant is the centre of the
