Property Description

Consisting of 79.1 Sqm (approx) this fully detached self contained property opens up to a generous entry / reception area with a walkway giving access to two generous sized consulting rooms both with reverse cycle air-conditioning and separate male and female amenities.

The back section of the property consists of an air conditioned large and versatile 20sqm space which can be used for a variety of uses as well as a separate modern kitchenette.

The property boasts a private courtyard and a unique walkway that adds colour and vibrancy which is a great feature.

The quiet street has plenty of parking and the property facade has great signage opportunity.

The interior has been recently refreshed and updated and there is nothing left to do but move in. Properties in this location and price point do not come around too often so get in quick.
