Property Description

- Paris-End of Collins Street
- Natural light throughout the tenancy
- Outdoor areas overlooking Collins Street

Located at the Paris-End of Collins Street sits ANZAC House; a prominent sandstone renaissance revival style building constructed in circa 1938. Its original stature presents a three storey building which is occupied by RSL Victoria.

Available for lease are two upper levels which were constructed in recent years totalling a combined area of 600 sqm* of contemporary office space.

Each 300 sqm* level offers natural light to all sides of the building and outdoor areas that overlook Collins Street and Melbourne's famous sporting precinct.
